Thieves Attacked the Old Man. Who Is Believed to Be Wealthy, and One of Them Was Captured.

Dr. Chay You Chung is a wrinkled old ese physician, having a little apothary shop at No. 26 Pell street, where kept in earthen jars. He is chemist, ician and surgeon for the Chinese ly, who prefer his strange prescripons to those of the most enlightened rs of the profession. The doctor to is not a day less than eighty years wears three enormous diamond age on his right hand and carries a y gold watch and chain. His store big enough to turn round in back of it is a smaller room, where diamond rings and his great age in the neighborhood that the old on he was robbed of $2.00 worth of operty.

He became suspicious last evening hen he saw three strangers peeping rough the dim glass of his door. He relived to shut up at 10.30 for the night there than keep open to 12 or 1, as he merally does. The old doctor went outle to put up the shutters, and as he is man stepped from behind a truck it grabbed him by the throst. The cotor was afraid to raise his hand to make the man's grip, thinking that his amount rings would be seen. At the me time two other men ran into the ore and put out the single gas jet, but the doctor was pulled back into a store, where he was robbed of his id watch and chain. He believes that would have been murdered but for nine Barber, a Chinatown girl, who gave a larms.

mine Barber, a Chinatown girl, who gave the alarm.

Chinamen came running across the treet, and one of the thiever ran out the door and disappeared. The other we threw the doctor to the floor after ackening his right eye and made their scape through a window into the yard to the house next door. They ran hrough an empty stable yard and limbed a six-foot fence, getting into the back yard of the old frame house at 60. If Pell street, where Chew Yee ong keeps a cigar store. Charlie Mow. Chinaman, hving at No. If Pell street, was sitting in the yard at the time. It was one of the thieves run through the passageway into the street. The scond thief hurt his leg in jumping wer the fence, and as he was slow in string up Charlie Mow ran into the assageway and closed the door from he outside, keeping the man in the ard.

t this point Policeman Reagan, of Elizabeth Street Station, came un-found James Rayland, of No. 50 nroe street, Hoboken, concealed in yard and locked him up. he old doctor was restored with the p of friends. A large iron bar had u left behind by the thieves. With a it is his idea they intended to kill a, so as to rob the place at their ure.

Gas Overpowers Him in the Well. eial to The World.)

NEW BRUNSWICK, Aug. 2.—James hine, an employee at Johnson & Johnson is factory, who lived at Millistone, as assisting in cleaning out a well at an Hosgiand's residence yesterday, ofter one man had been down the well had been brought to the surface in unconscious condition Shine volungered to descend. He had been down thout fifteen minutes when he began a feel the effects of the gas. He significantly the self-been down to the surface, and then about ten feet from the top became unconscious and fell to the bottom of the well, breaking his neck and both rms.
